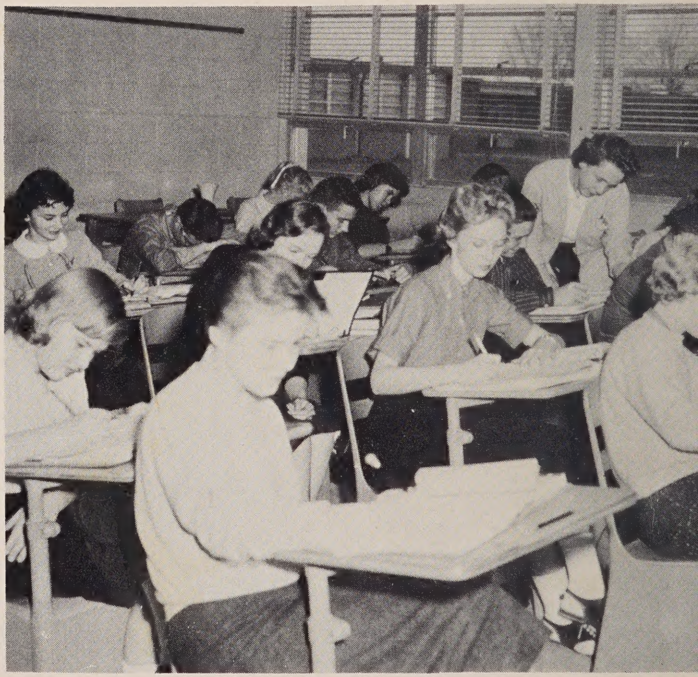
THE 1959
ILIAD

SOUTHWEST HIGH SCHOOL
Forsyth County,
North Carolina

Oh, me! Will I ever get to the front of the lunch line?

Hurry up! It's only a minute til the bell rings!

Only with the teacher's help!



Anybody want to study?

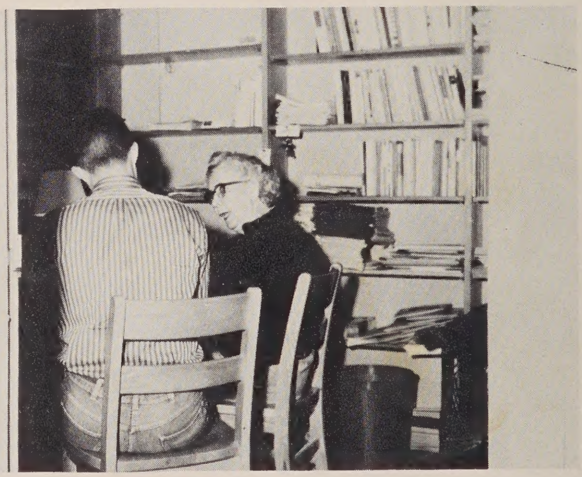
Oh! I've only ten more minutes to cram!

DEDICATION

For her patience and understanding, For her most helpful guidance, For her cheerful disposition, For her genuine interest in each of us, For her devoted Christian life, We, the Senior class dedicate the 1959 ILIAD to MRS. LETTIE BOWERS.

"I'll be more than happy to write a recommendation for you."

Always ready to give guidance.



Mrs. Lettie Bowers.

Whew! This is hard work!

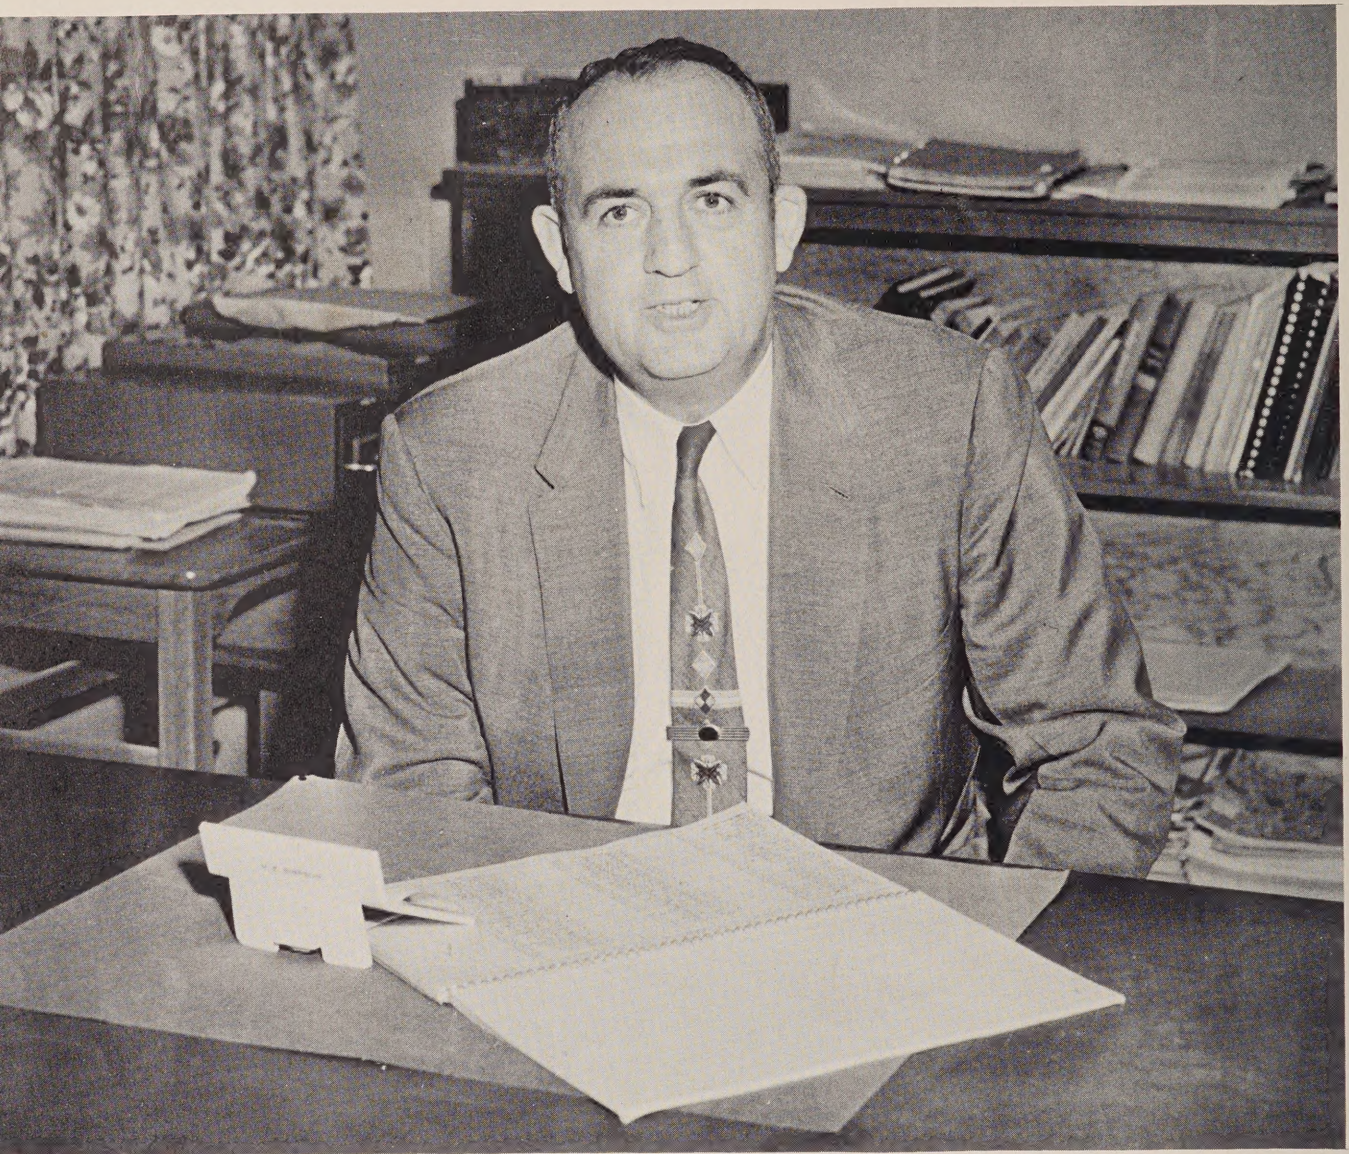
FOREWORD

We hope that as you leaf through the pages of the 1959 ILIAD, you will recall the many wonderful teachers and friends you have met. May your memory be enlightened of all the activities and sports which you have enjoyed the past year at Southwest.

Some of these pictures are amusing!

This work can get confusing!

ADMINISTRATION



PRINCIPAL

We have all been proud of the progress Southwest High School has made during its short history. We wish to commend the student body and the faculty on their efforts to continuously improve our school.

To our graduating class should go special "thanks" for three years of outstanding service. To those students returning we'll be looking forward to still greater accomplishments.

Mr. H. E. Simpson

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

TO OUR PARENTS

For all of your guidance thru the years,

For your patience and understanding,

For your helpfulness in helping us solve our problems,

For your steadfast Christian faith, We, the Senior Class would like to say THANK YOU.

CLASS SONG

Our Freshmen year was oh, so new.
We studied hard the whole year through.
We will have these moments to remember!
The dances gay, the fads we made,
Were all a part of our school days.
We will have these moments to remember!

Our next school year, we journeyed here;
To Southwest High, we bid hello!
We will have these moments to remember!
Our new friendships they've lasted long,
May they continue ever strong!
We will have these moments to remember!

The Junior year our classrings came,
The prom we gave was oh, so gay;
We will have these moments to remember!
The Talent Show was so much fun,
Our Senior year was almost here.
We will have these moments to remember!

Now we are Seniors leaving here,
To face the future without fear.
We will have these moments to remember!
The time has come to say goodbye
To friends and teachers who breathe a sigh.
We will have these moments to remember!

Janet Jones
Kay Spainhour

CLASS POEM

As the hour of parting quickly nears
Our thoughts wander back across the years
Together we stood, scattered will be,
Our Hearts e're united in memory.

Recalling each teacher, each true friend
We smile through our tears, all things must end.
They gave us courage, our trials to meet
And shared life's moment so dear, and sweet.

We had our laughter, we had our tears,
Our share of joy, our mutual fears.
With faith in God we met each sorrow,
Secure in His love, we face tomorrow.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1956, we as Sophomores opened up a new page in our book of knowledge. Everyone was excited about the opening of our new school, Southwest. This day was more than an opening of a new school; it was an opening for new opportunities, new friends, and new adventures.

We familiarized ourselves with our new name "Trojans" and found it quite fitting for the atmosphere of the school. Other new names such as "The Iliad" our annual, and "The Odyssey," our school paper found their place in our thoughts of Southwest. All 158 of us were beginning to get the spirit of Southwest when we saw our new colors, red, black, and white.

After a year of getting settled we found that we were Juniors, at last. People started noticing us now and we felt the importance of being an upperclassmen. We all remember and appreciate the work of our sponsors, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Butner, Miss Snow, and Mr. Robinson, who did much to help make our Junior year a successful one. We proudly elected our class officers who were: President, Jack Kiger; Vice Presidents, Irvin Williamson, Sandra Andrew, Betty Greene, and Tony Lutz; Secretary, Janet Jones; Treasurer, Diane Livengood.

We were very surprised when Southwest received a charter to organize an Honor Society and were pleased to find that six of our classmates were charter members. They were Terry Caudle, R.L. Spach, Frank Lustig, Jack Kiger, Eddie Hauser, and Kay Spainhour.

In November, 1957, our class presented a variety show as a project. "Club '59" was considered to be a great success since we had two night performances.

Junior Marshals, chosen on basis of scholarship and popularity, were Terry Caudle, chief; Marilou Martin, Kay Spainhour, Phyllis Cooksey, Janet Jones, Diane Livengood, Eddie Hauser, Harold Parker, Irvin Williamson, and Frank Lustig.

The climax of our year was the planning of the Junior-Senior Prom which was held at the Robert E. Lee Hotel. The music of Jimmy Myers' Orchestra was in keeping with our theme, "Stairway to the Stars."

Finally, we reached our goal in high school, that is, to be called a Senior. Our year started off with Frank Lustig serving as President of the Student Body; Kay Spainhour as Editor-in-chief of the Iliad; and Sandra Andrew as Chief Cheerleader. Senior Class Officers were: President, Tony Lutz; Vice Presidents, Irvin Williamson, Ed Brewer, Lawrence Davis, Eddie Hauser; Secretary, Harold Parker; Treasurer, Jay Hill. Everyone recognized the work and long hours that our sponsors donated to make our Senior year a memorable one. They were: Miss Farthing, Miss Cook, Miss Adams, and Mrs. Robinson. Some of our activities were: the election of superlatives and Class Day officers; the choice of Class colors, flowers, and motto; dedication of the annual; and selection of mascots. Our colors were red and white with the red rose as our class flower. Class Day officers were: Class Poet, Norma Pfaff; Class Motto, Irvin Williamson; Class Historians, Marilou Martin and Frank Lustig; Class Prophets, Tony Lutz and Peggy Massey; Testators, Jack Kiger and Betty Greene; and Song Writers, Janet Jones and Kay Spainhour.

We presented the traditional Christmas Program with everyone participating in the singing of carols.

With excitement we began the final chapter with Awards Night, Kid's Day, Senior Picnic, Class Day, and the Baccalaureate Sermon. As we read the final page, we remember all these things with mixed emotions and with graduation close our book, but not our everlasting memories of Southwest High School.

CLASS PROPHECY

Well here we are in the year 1975. The little town of Southwestville has grown quite a bit since the seniors of '59 built it.

BETSY KIRKMAN, first woman mayor of our town, can be seen nearly everyday standing in front of City Hall passing out cigars and kissing babies as a way of showing her gratitude. BETSY'S City Manager is SAM RICHARDSON. Chief of Police, IRVIN WILLIAMSON, captain, ERNEST TEMPLETON, and other members of the force, EDWARD BREWER, PHILLIP MOCK, ARTHUR STEWART, and WAYNE EDWARDS, are trying to hold down the speed of the still reckless drivers, JERRY PILCHER, BRENDA HENSLEY, TOMMY WATKINS, BONNIE MOTSINGER, and EUGENE CLOPTON. Judge JIM BUCK presiding in Superior Court, has thrown the TODD vs. TODD case out of court. He says DONALD can't sue THEODORE just because his name is TODD too.

The high school holds a lot of familiar faces. FRANK LUSTIG, principal of the school, is beginning to turn a little gray around the temples. What more could you expect when he is still trying to get rid of SAM WRIGHT, and GARY JONES!

JEAN SHUTT, Shorthand teacher, struggles very hard trying to convince her students that all those crazy looking signs really do make words.

LOUISE WHEELING, and LINDA RIDDLE, are directors of girls athletics. RICHARD COLLINS, and ALBERT DeFOREST are directors of boys athletics.

MARY ANNE MILLER, Home Economics teacher, is busy as a beaver trying to teach her students how to thread a needle and how to cook meals without burning them.

KAY SPAINHOUR, president of WAKE FORESTRY COLLEGE, has just hired three new professors: LUTHER ALCORN professor of Science, and ASHLEY FOSTER professor of Mathematics. They will take the places of JAY HILL and EDDIE HAUSER who have already made enough money to retire. WILLARD GARRISON has been made professor of Greek.

SARA GUNDERSON and MICKEY PFAFF decided to go to college but haven't graduated as yet because they are still trying to pass Chemistry.

BRENDA WAGONER, DEANNA SHUMAKER, MARTHA HUFF, and BARBARA WOODLIEF are the manager, assistant manager, personnel manager, and salesclerk in the W.F. Cottonworth Dime store located in the center of Southwestville.

Just beside Cottonworth's is H & P Supermarket owned by HAROLD PARKER. His bag-boy, NORWOOD JONES has talked him into selling out to LARRY LONG.

Located just down the street is Dill Pickle Fashion Shop, owned and operated by JANET and REBECCA DILLWORTH, who's latest fashions are modeled by SANDRA ANDREW, LYNDA LOWERY, NORMA PEACOCK, and NANCY MESSICK.

Across the street is Tuck-Tuck Beauty Salon owned by MARTHA and JUDY TUCKER. ELLEN FRANKLIN, THELMA EDWARDS, BETTY GREENE, and JUANITA JOHNSON are a few of the operators in the salon.

KAY BONER, manufacturer of Bonaparte Caskets, has hired MARY JANE BEROTH as her private secretary, to try to keep PHYLLIS COOKSEY and JANE TODD, office clerks, from continually running off to Lemons Baseball Park owned by BETTY LEMONS, to see RAYMOND WILKINS, KENNETH COX, and WENT CORNATZER, members of the Southwestville's mighty nine play ball.

Among some of the other business' in town is Sain's Garage and Upholstery

Shop operated by KENNETH SAIN, who specializes in tailoring seat covers for '50 model Fords. Some of his helpers are; MICKEY DUNN, LARRY FRYE, and JERRY NANCE.

Shaw-'nuff Funeral Home is owned by DAVID SHAW. He is assisted by BUTCH TESH, DONALD BOLES, GARY KOONTZ, and JAMES MESSER.

Moved to Southwestville is Jarvis Battery Company, now owned by LARRY JARVIS. Some of his chargers are, CLIFTON BURKE, AMOS CLARK, LEE HEWITT, and WAYNE KETNER.

Krunchy Kreme Doughnut Company is owned by RICHARD MOCK. We always said that someday he would be rolling in dough. ROSEMARY SHUTT is his chief taster. DIANE LIVENGOOD is RICHARD'S secretary, while PEGGY BEAUCHAMP, LINDA ANDERSON, SHIRLE CLEARY, and JANE CORNWELL are office clerks.

VERNON LAIRD, sign painter and artist, has just finished painting the main sign on the building of the TERRY CAUDLE Construction Company. TERRY'S chief brick layer is MARY LEE (MYRT) KETNER.

Nearly everybody has some sort of account with Coin National Bank owned by KENNY McKAUGHN. NANCY McCLAMROCK TESH is his private secretary. NORMA PFAFF, SHIRLEY THOMAS, DOROTHY HOLDER, and DONA McKINNEY are only a few of the many employees that help keep the money safe.

BILL CANTER is the owner of the only Real Estate company in town. He has a pretty big joy finding land for everybody, but with GAIL LONG, and NANCY VEST, to help him he seems to do okay.

The neighborhood theatre owned by ROBERT GRIFFIN, is currently running "The Return of Matt Dillon, starring LAWRENCE DAVIS, and LIBBY BURKE, as the everloving Kitty.

Nearly everybody attends one of the two churches in our town. DARREL CHEEK, pastor of one of the churches is very happy to have MARILOU MARTIN as a choir director. JOHNNY WEISNER, pastor of the other church is happy to have LYNDA MOCK play the piano.

The town is giving honor this week to TERRY CULLER, BENNY HARRIS, and CHARLIE STIMPSON who raised the biggest farm crops in the state this year.

ROBERT SHUMATE, WAYNE SPARKS, ELAINE LUCK, BARBARA SMITH, ANNIE MARIE TALLENT, PAT VAUGHN, and WAYNE HUFFMAN have all left town to assume posts in the Federal Government organization.

Just on the outskirts of town is the Terry-iffic Night Club owned by TERRY LAWSON, and JANET MOSER, who feature the Falsetones, DONALD BAILEY, ROBERT BOGGS, EUGENE OWENS, and TOMMY RIDINGS; Vocalist, JACK KIGER accompanied by NONA BOOSE on the piano, and that popular song and dance team, R.L. SPACH AND JANE BREWER. Next week's added attractions will be that hot trumpet player ERNEST LEE SAPP; snappy guitar player RAMONA BARNEY; cool singer, JANET JONES; song and dance by ANN LOWDER, and PHISA TESH with her talking accordian.

Well I guess you can see that the past sixteen years haven't been wasted by the members of the class of '59. If they prosper as much in the next sixteen years they will have the biggest town in the good 'ole U.S.A.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the 1959 Senior Class of Southwest High School, possessing sound minds and healthy bodies, admitting our possessions to be small but precious, and knowing that we are no longer a single group after June 2, 1959, do make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

Section I

To Mr. Simpson, our principal, we leave our gratitude and our appreciation for his interest in us and our future well-being.

Section II

To our faculty, we leave our super abundance of intelligence we were so modest about revealing and hope that they will divide it among the less fortunate.

Section III

To the Juniors, we leave our senior privileges, our responsibilities, and the job of keeping the school under control.

Section IV

To the Sophomores, we leave our tendency to be "hard-headed" and all our joys and sorrows.

Section V

Upon the shoulders of the Freshmen Class, we place our cloak of fortitude, which may have been slightly threadbare at times because of our own neglect, but which was woven beautifully back by the invisible hands of kindness, understanding, and encouragement.

Section VI

To our parents, we leave our many thanks for the opportunities and sacrifices they gave to us these twelve years.

ARTICLE II

MICKEY DUNN leaves his ability to get along with Miss Farthing in English to Joby Poteat and Gary Peacock.

IRVIN WILLIAMSON bestowes upon Larry Etchison, the job of being a safe bus driver and head manager of the boys basketball team.

LUTHER ALLCORN would like to leave to Ronald Spainhour his book, "How to be a Successful Wrestler."

R.L. SPACH and WILLARD GARRISON, who enjoyed arguing with Mr. Binkley in Solid Geometry, leave the job of keeping him thinking to Wavell Fogleman and Norvell Gross.

RICHARD COLLINS and FRANK LUSTIG, those big boys on the basketball team, leave their positions to Jon Reynolds and Monty Matthews. Clear the boards for the team next year, boys.

HAROLD PARKER, MARY ANN MILLER, and DON BOLES, who were the quietest students in the senior class, will their quietness to Mike Kite and Bill Sides.

JOHNNY WEISNER and JIM BUCK leave to Pat Landreath and Roy Livengood some of their height. Use it to some advantage, Roy and Pat.

LYNDA LOWERY and NORMA PEACOCK have something to leave to Janet Miller and Brenda Hill, the job of giving out chewing gum and towels to the girls basketball team.

WENT CORNATZER and RICHARD MOCK, who did a fine job on the football team, wish to will Perry Harper and Tommy Davis their positions.

WAYNE SPARKS and PHILLIP MOCK leave their offices in F.F.A. to Johnny Speas and George Fearrington.

MICKEY PFAFF, SARA GUNDERSON, and BRENDA WAGONER will leave vacancies at Woolworth's to Brenda Spaugh, Mary Charles Crouch, and Gwandella Isgett. Keep up the good sales, girls.

CHARLIE STIMPSON would like to leave to Danny Hauser and Robert Tuttle his bus. Both of you can sit in his seat.

BETSY KIRKMAN and NANCY MESSICK will their love of Trojanaire practice to Janice Conrad and Ruth Church. Try to get to practice on time, girls.

Who are these girls who draw so many wolf whistles? Why, cute PHYLLIS COOKSEY and DONA McKINNEY of course! The ability to do this goes to Judy Turner and Mary Ann Sloan who seem to be doing pretty well, themselves.

MARY JANE BEROTH and JEAN SHUTT will their shorthand skill to Brenda Tesh and Nancy Pardue. There will be a big change in grades next year.

MARILOU MARTIN and BETTY GREENE, the two girls who took solid geometry with sixteen boys, will their mathematical ability to Ann Alsobrook and Lydia Binkley. You'll need it if you're going to State, girls!

DARRELL CHEEK and THEODORE TODD leave their musical talent to Norman Craver and Samuel Sapsay.

NORWOOD JONES, LARRY JARVIS, and DON BAILEY leave their good times they had on week-ends to Jerry Jones and Jerry Teague. Have a good time, boys!

ALBERT DeFOREST and EDDIE HAUSER, who kept the English Class laughing, will this ability to Donald Hauser and Odell Shields. Hope you have as much fun as they did.

ELAINE LUCK, ANNA MARIE TALLENT, and JANE CORNWELL "Seem" to be so quiet. They leave all the things they didn't say, but should have, to Manchel Barney and Jane Andrew.

LAWRENCE DAVIS and ASHLEY FOSTER, who take to French like a duck does to water, will all those exams they sailed through to Dodd Linker, David Smith, and Gerald Dinkens. Think they will do to use next year, boys?

DIANE LIVENGOOD and JERRY NANCE leave their neatness to Kenneth Ford and Marie Haper.

ED BREWER and LINDA RIDDLE, who could think of the craziest things to say, will their wit to Bill Huff and Becky Jarvis.

KENNETH COX and ROBERT SHUMATE leave their love for ping-pong to Roy Mendenhall, Leon Phillips, Stephen Tilley, and Wayne Moser. Keep the paddles hot, boys.

KAY SPAINHOUR and TERRY CAUDLE will their friendly smile to Rick Vitek and Glenda Vogler.

SANDRA ANDREW and JANET DILLWORTH leave their attraction of Wake Forest boys to Virginia Bolen and Dorothy Bovender.

JANET MOSER and PEGGY BEAUCHAMP wonder if anybody can go steady and yet flirt as much as they do. How about this Louise Stewart and Jane Frye?

JUDY TUCKER and LOUISE WHEELING will the good luck they had getting a diamond to Bobbie Largen and Elizabeth Peters.

ROBERT BOGGS and GENE OWENS leave their musical talent to Casper Jones and Willie Kiger. Keep the school entertained, boys.

TERRY LAWSON and TOMMY WATKINS will their port-a-walls to Tommy Norman and Austin McGuire.

PEGGY MASSEY, NORMA PFAFF, and BONNIE MOTSINGER will their poetic ability to Linda Lowder, Mary Lowder, and Linda McBride. Let's keep those lines rhyming.

LYNDA MOCK and PHISA TESH, those two brains, leave their good grades to Ruth Taylor, Judy Mock, and Mary Lou Perryman.

KENNETH SAIN leaves his absentee excuses stating, "He was sick yesterday," to Richard Sheets, Joe Rothrock, and Roy Keaton. Please excuse them, too, Mr. Simpson.

ARTHUR STEWART leaves his nickname, "muscles," to Harold Cox and Donald Crater.

JANET JONES wills her dependability to Doris Lawson and Nancy Knott. Hope you can keep up the good work she has done.

SAM RICHARDSON wills his important job of laughing at Miss Adam's jokes to Kay Van Doeren and Gary Barney. It's not as easy as it looks.

BILL CANTER, who has an ability to think of something to say, anywhere, anytime, bestows upon Dan Brewer and Tona Jennings this gift.

Here is a humorous touch--ERNEST TEMPLETON thinks he would like to will Glenda Kimmer and Ann King his flat-top haircut. Think you can use it?

Here is something Wayne Hutchens and Ann Lowery can really use--TOMMY RIDINGS wills his "bashfulness" to you. Things ought to be less hectic next year.

ELLEN FRANKLIN, MARTHA TUCKER, BARBARA WOODLIEFF, and PAT VAUGHN's one and only ambition is to be through with school forever!!! Wilma Adams and Brenda Beroth, what are your views on that? Are you also ambitious?

RAMONA BARNEY and DEANNA SHUMAKER bestow their English literature books upon Colene Boles and Katie Hice. Be sure to memorize all that Shakespeare.

You know all the chewing gum you find under the seats, well, TONY LUTZ and JACK KIGER will this to Carl Myers and Roger Gough.

JANE TODD, our "hot-rod" driver, leaves her ability to never drop to 80 to Carol Cox and Bobby Tesh. Don't get caught.

LIBBY BURKE wills her vacation in the hospital to Jean Davis and Audrey James.

LINDA ANDERSON, THELMA EDWARDS, and KAY BONER leave their love of week-ends and date night to Vivian Sloan and Mary Pfaff.

RAYMOND WILKINS leaves his ability to play baseball to Terry Hellard, Tommy Herman, and Curtis Miller. How about some home runs, boys?

NONA BOOSE, who can really drive that Oldsmobile (in the middle of the road) bestows upon Sandra Lewis and Rachel Mabe this gift.

Gene Speas and Jarvis Hutchins, BUTCH TESH bequeaths his "studious nature" to you. Now you will be "A" students.

SHIRLEY THOMAS and MYRT KETNER will their fine sense of humor to Mary Katherine McMillan and Brona Welfare.

JAY HILL would like to leave his "cat pants" to Derris Foster.

Who is that girl who is always surrounded by boys? BECKY DILLWORTH of course! She wishes to will her clan of boyfriends to Judy Roop and Ruby Yates.

GARY KOONTZ leaves his love for girls to Roy Dalton, Jerry Cornatzer, and Jimmy Cohn.

ANN LOWDER and JANE BREWER will to Gregory Colbert and Bobby Higgins the ability to smoke between classes and not get caught.
